Elevating the Impact of Obstructive Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy: A Conversation Between Providers and Patients

 Sunday, November 12

 9:30 AM-10:15 AM ET

 Heart Hub Learning Studio I

OBJECTIVES

- Better understand symptomatic, obstructive hypertrophic cardiomyopathy (oHCM) and how it impacts patients and their families
- Drive awareness of the impact of the disease itself and identify how health care practitioners can help patients with quality-of-life considerations
- Discuss the psychosocial impact of oHCM and strategies to improve the dialogue between patients and providers

This event is not part of the official Scientific Sessions 2023 as planned by the American Heart Association Committee on Scientific Sessions Program. This event does not qualify for continuing education credit.
