

Figure 1. Evaluation of pulsatile tinnitus.

* Refer to neurotology if cerebrospinal fluid leak is suspected.

 Magnetic resonance angiography and venography can be considered if patient cannot tolerate CT contrast.

Abbreviations: BMI, body mass index; CT; computed tomography; CTA, CT angiogram; CTV, CT venogram; hCG; human chorionic gonadotropin; Hgb, hemoglobin; LP, lumbar puncture; MRI, magnetic resonance imaging; MEE, middle ear effusion; n, nerve; neurotol; neurotology; ophthalm, ophthalmology; TB, temporal bone; TSH, thyroid-stimulating hormone; vasc; vascular.